ExxonMobil Canada Properties by its managing partner ExxonMobil Canada Ltd., operator of the Hebron Project, sees value in expanding use of the database to the Hibernia and Hibernia Southern Extension projects, exploration, subsea activities and project co-venturers should they request information. NOTE:

Registration in the database does not imply that a supplier is approved as a qualified supplier, nor does it indicate that a vendor is included on any Non-Binding Request for Proposal (NRFP) or bid list for the supply of goods or services for which it has registered.

Scope of Work Overview:

The scope of work/supply includes, but is not limited to:

Provision of a vessel, qualified for the transportation of two (2) decommissioned diesel driven 45Te SWL pedestal cranes (henceforth referred to as the CARGO) for a short distance estimated to be 20 nautical miles or less. The CARGO will be delivered on a heavy lift vessel (HLV) to an open-water rendezvous point in the Chedabucto Bay area of Nova Scotia, Canada. Nominally, the transfer of CARGO will be completed in inland waters, within the headlands of Chedabucto Bay, or in another relatively sheltered location nearer the coastline. The vessel will transport the CARGO to an agreed quayside in the Chedabucto Bay area. The vessel will remain secured alongside the quayside for the offloading of the CARGO and removal of the associated seafastening and grillages.

Project specifics:

- Cranes will be transferred from the HLV to the vessel deck in two pieces per crane (crane boom separated from the crane slewing column);
 - a. Refer to the attached sketch (Attachment 1 available through BIDS-see contact information below) of the CARGO.
 - b. The boom will likely be separated at midspan before lifting to the transport vessel. The boom segments will be stacked into a package of approximately half the length of the complete boom.
 - c. Crane boom weight is approximately 40Te (each); crane slewing column is approximately 95Te (each).
- The CARGO may arrive at Chedabucto Bay anytime between 1 June 2020 and 20 August 2020. The execution window will be narrowed closer to the execution dates and is subject to change. The exact dates are to be communicated in execution notification windows established prior to a contract agreement.
 - a. The estimated time on-hire from CARGO transfer to quayside offload is approximately two (2) weeks.

Additionally, the selected supplier will be required to meet all technical and Safety, Security, Health, and Environmental (SSHE) specifications and safe work practices of HMDC and its affiliates as appropriate.
